

GCSE Medicine Through Time- Part 2
Students will continue their investigation into the ideas about illness, treatments and preventions during the Industrial Revolution and Modern times and understand what has led to the progress since the Middle Ages.

GCSE Medicine Through Time- Trenches
Students will study the trenches, weapons, illnesses and battles of the First World War in depth.

GCSE Germany 1918-1939
Students will study the challenges facing the new Weimar Republic after World War One and how Hitler came to power and transformed German society.

YEAR
11

GCSE Early Elizabethan England 1558-1588
Students will study the problems Elizabeth I faced when she became queen and how she attempted to resolve them in the following years.

GCSE Medicine Through Time- Part 1
Students will investigate the ideas about illness, treatments and preventions during the Middle Ages and the Renaissance- with case studies of the Black Death and the Great Plague.

GCSE Cold War 1941-1991
Students will investigate the situation after World War Two and how this led to the tensions between East and West for the next 50 years.

YEAR
10

Why did people think dictatorships were a good idea?
Students will investigate the revolutionary new ideas that shaped the world in the 20th Century.

Did Britain really win WW2?
Students will investigate the causes and events of World War Two and how it was a truly global war.

Why were 6 million people murdered?
Students will investigate the causes and events of the Holocaust.

Why did America fight a cold war?
Students will investigate the US decision in 1945 to drop the world's first atom bomb on Japan and the development of the Cold War.

Why was there a scandal over Windrush?
Students will study the experience of migrants to Britain after 1945 and the Windrush scandal

YEAR
9

Who won the fight for the vote? Students will investigate the role suffragettes and earlier women played in the fight for the vote.

Should we destroy our idols?
Students will investigate the colonisation of India and investigate the debates around colonial statues

How did Britons fight for their rights?
Students will investigate the struggle of people to improve their lives and examine the punishments of those who dared to challenge authority.

Why did Manchester become known as Cottonopolis?
Students will study why the Industrial Revolution happened in Manchester and how Manchester benefitted from and fought against slavery.

YEAR
8

Was WW1 really a war of lions led by donkeys?
Students will investigate the causes and events of World War One and the contribution of soldiers from around the world in the source of the war.

Were the Normans a big turning point in history for England?
Students will study how England was changed forever by the Norman Conquest.

Why did we kill our king?
Students will study why Charles I and Parliament choose to go to war with each other in 1642.

YEAR
7

How has Mary Beard used evidence to reach conclusions about the lives of Romans?
Students will study how we construct History and what historians have discovered about the Roman times.

Why did William, Duke of Normandy win the Battle of Hastings?
Students will study why England was changed forever by the Norman Conquest.

How powerful were medieval monarchs?
Students will study conflict between Church and Monarchy and the limits of the power of the monarchy.

What was it like living in Tudor Britain?
Students will study the importance of Henry VIII and the Reformation before examining investigate lives of Black Tudors and Women and also how England compared to other countries at the time.